LEARNING FAIR

Hoosic Valley's Annual Learning Fair will take place this Tuesday May 15th in the Elementary School old Gym. Students in grades 4-6 will have projects on display in the gym all day, and students will be available to explain their projects to our visitors Tuesday evening.

This is a fun annual event coordinated by our PTO, where our students get to showcase their knowledge about things that excite them, so stop in and check out the projects!

TEACHER APPRECIATION

This past week we celebrated Teacher Appreciation Day. Hoosic Valley's PTO generously gave a custom Hoosic Valley Coffee Mug filled with treats to each faculty and staff member! We also saw many children entering the building in the morning with gifts or mementos for their teachers. Thank you all for your appreciation!
