

November Character Counts

Mrs. Nazarian's 1st Graders:

Jameson - I show respect at home by raking leaves.

Liam - I show respect in the classroom by being a good friend.

Dylan - I show respect at home by helping to clean the house.

Emery - I show respect in the classroom by showing care.

Stella - I show respect in the classroom by helping the teacher.

Emma - I show respect in the classroom by sharing my toys.

Christian - I show respect outside by helping others.

Kenny - I show respect in the classroom by listening.

Colleen - I show respect in the classroom by sharing my toys.

Brennan - I show respect in the classroom by sharing pencils.

Jackson - I show respect in the classroom by helping my friends.

Peyton - I show respect in the classroom by sharing.

Judd - I show respect in the classroom by being nice to my friends.

Charlotte - I show respect in the classroom by playing with friends.

Ella - I show respect in the classroom by sharing.

Israel - I show respect in the classroom by helping.

NJ - I show respect in the classroom by not screaming.

Mrs. Cruz's Third Graders:

Raymond - I show respect in the classroom by not interrupting.

Myles - I show respect in the community by not throwing garbage on the ground, because it is bad for the earth.

Jacob - I show respect by being responsible.

Grace & Peyton

R is for responsibility

E is for empathy

S is for – it's simple!

P is for practice!

E is for be extraordinary!

C is for create

T is for together!

Ira - I show respect in the classroom by cleaning up messes.

Adrianna - I show respect in the classroom by being ready to learn.

Mason

R is for ready to learn!

E is for easy

S for silent voice

P is for protect others

E is for be excellent!

C is for clean up the classroom!

T is for be thankful!

Rebecca - I show respect in the community by picking up garbage.

Levi & Calvin

R is for be ready!

E is for be excellent!

S is for share!

P is for be present!

E is for be excited!

C is for create!

T is for be thankful!

Michael

R is for be respectful!

E is for it's easy!

S is for be super nice!

P is for be peaceful!

E is for be excellent!

C is for help clean!

T is for say thank you!

Liam - I show respect in the classroom when I help others.

Kacie & Adalynn

R is for relaxed!

E is for have empathy!

S is for special!

P is for practice!

E is for energy!

C is for caring!

T is for thankful!

Karter - I show respect at home by helping my family.

Chloe

R is for responsibility

E is for be engaged

S is for be silent

P is for peaceful

E is for encouraging others

C is for care

T is for try your best

Fourth Graders:

Kourtney - I show respect in the classroom by helping people when they need help.

Lily

R stands for really try your best

E stands for especially do not cry if you get a problem wrong

S stands for see what the teacher is trying to teach you

P stands for politely ask the teacher a question

E stands for each person can be a friend

C stands for create self control

T stands for try as hard as you can

Ryleigh

R is for respect your classmates

E is for education is the best medicine

S is for some people have strong feelings, so be kind

P is for people who have empathy when they imagine themselves in someone else's shoes

E is for earn your dreams

C is for count people in to play with you

T is for together, you can do anything!

Bently & Aiden

R is for respect your teacher

E is for eat healthy foods

S is for shhhhhhh

P is for pay attention in class!

E is for educate your classmates

C is for create responsibility

T is for teach others

Connor

R is for remain calm

E is for each of us can accept others

S is for stay quiet

P is for pay attention

E is for enter learning mode

C is for care for equipment

T is for treat people the way you want to be treated

Leia

R is for responsibility

E is for earn trust

S is for stay focused

P is for be patient

E is for everyone has good ideas

C is for control your body

T is for talk in a nice tone of voice

Killeon - I act responsibility. I show respect in my classroom and community.